

The Morning Sun

David Llewellyn

When the morning sun shines upon a pretty place
And you cast a sleepy glance upon a face
Take the moment by surprise
Or it's bound to pass you by Then close your eyes fantasise and play with me

As the soaring sun beats down upon a sandy place
And you splash amongst the waves with bare feet
Take the moment by surprise
Spread your arms and try to fly
Then close your eyes fantasise and say

Chorus

*She's always there
She saved my life
She understands she'll be my wife
She's always there
She saved my life
She understands she'll be my wife*

I don't know what to say
But I wonder every day
What I did to deserve your love your love
And in a thousand ways I want try and say
What you did to deserve my love my love my love

When the wind plays in the drapes of a darkened room
And you feel the warming breeze upon your skin
Take the moment by surprise
Caress the body at your side
Then close your eyes fantasise

Chorus

I don't know what to say
But I wonder every day
What I did to deserve your love your love
And in a thousand ways I want try and say

The Old Backyard

David Llewellyn

In an old backyard between the house and the fence
I looked up higher than I ever had Cause somewhere between the moon and the stars
I hid my memories in an empty jar

And in the living room at my grandpa's house
I played piano without knowing how
And somewhere between asleep and awake Began the journey I was meant to take

Chorus

Yes I'm a little bit older every day I wake A little bit taller every meal I take A little bit closer than I've ever been A little bit higher than I've ever seen

In an old vee dub behind the swimming pool
I kissed my girlfriend and I brushed her curls
And sometimes it seemed between a boy and a man
I'd choose my future with my trembling hands

Chorus

Middle 8

In a quiet room in a row of beds
I watch my father as he's growing frail
And somewhere between who's young and who's old
I see reflections from his passing world

Chorus

Refrain

In the old backyard
In the old backyard
In the old backyard
In the old backyard

The Painting

Ian MacCarthy/David Llewellyn

Bathed in perfect sunshine in the afternoon
Hangs a lonely painting far across the room
Though it's made of paper it was made with love
Just like the gentle fabric of the stars above

Chorus

*And it's been too long hanging Hanging on a wall
Too long too long it's getting old
Too long too long hanging on his heart*

A beautiful scene created with a special touch Painted with such love for him for he meant so much
Now as the sun fades in the cool night air
He hears those distant sounds of the love they shared

Chorus

Middle 8

The girl he loved so much and thought he knew
Paints a memory of him and their love so true
Memories of love mixed with the dreams of a fool
Now hang alone and sad in silent solitude

Chorus

With a glance he wanders back into the past Relives those final moments of his broken heart
Haunted by the images that seduced his soul
He burns this lonely painting to take away his cold

Chorus

THE PAINTING

SOMERSET, OH & RHODE

Now The Show Is Over

David Llewellyn / Ian MacCarthy

Somewhere the day is ending somewhere the day has just begun somewhere a child is crying somewhere a child is having fun so don't lose sight of wonder or the sweetness of the night may you fall asleep beneath your lovers sighs

Somewhere a dreamers waking somewhere a dream is just begun soon the traffic's snarling in its haste as your daily bell is rung but don't lose sight of wonder in the gentle morning rays of sunlight soft upon your lovers face

Soon our show is over somewhere another show begins and outside our world is waiting watching from the wings but we won't lose sight of you our friends and the sweetness that you bring so we'll be back somewhere with songs to sing

NOW THE SHOW IS OVER / SOAR

The Sound Of Hello

David Llewellyn

Listen to the beat of my heart
Listen to my heart strings
Listen to the voices you hear
When we are alone

Listen to the sound of my voice
Listen to the music it brings
Listen at my side when you sleep
What can you hear

Chorus

*Beauty surrounds all your features
Entrancing my moods with your charms
Take me with you take me with you
Life and death hold no fear for me
When you are in my arms
Keep me near you keep me near you
Nights and days were lonely once
But now you're here with me*

Remember the sound of hello
Remember your fluttering heart
Remember your romancing eyes
Remember that night

Remember the sound of goodbye
Remember your stuttering voice
Remember the things you regret
Remember your tears

Chorus

remember the sound of hello
remember your fluttering heart
remember your romancing eyes
remember that night

listen to the music it brings
listen at my side when you sleep
what can you hear

remember your stuttering voice
remember the things you regret
remember your tears

The Storm

David Llewellyn

Here against the storm my world is trembling
Pressed against cold stone I hear you calling me

Lost amongst the lost where no one feels
No one begins to wonder
Laid bare beneath the sun I feel my skin begin to burn

Chorus

*I'm falling I'm crying
I'm losing out at something grand I'm trying but I'm losing
As I'm crying out for your love again*

Here against the wall my life unraveled
There in another scene the road less traveled

Trapped within the will without the strength
Soon no one stops to wonder
Laid bare to face my truths I feel the glare
Of all that's hidden deeper

Chorus

Outside the world is still she barely breathes
So patiently she's waiting
Arms reach out to me I'm breaking free
Free to start a brand new journey

Chorus

Chorus

Chorus

Through The Cracks In Things

David Llewellyn

Once you were a babe in arms
Then a man at war
And soon became a family man
Who served his lord

Chorus A

*When you're young you win
You just fell through the cracks in things
Reminded of unpleasant things
They disappeared*

You are a fine young man
But now you're getting older
Independent and dignified
All your life

Chorus B

*When you're young you win
You just fell through the cracks in things
Reminded of unpleasant things
They disappeared
We let the chosen ones
Fill the news with platitudes
Spin the facts and dodge the truth
Then disappear*

You are a fine young man
But now you're getting older
Independent and dignified
All your life

Chorus B

Some say fate will have it's way
Some say to just roll over
And though they tried to rush the end
But ya back would never bend

Chorus B

Chorus B

Then disappear
Then disappear

Too Many Tears

Diane Myers / Ian MacCarthy / David Llewellyn

A random spark, from the devil's hand
Brought destruction on our beautiful land
No time to escape the smoke filled skies
Hundreds of lives in the blink of an eye

No stars in the sky, an orange moon
Looks down on the townships now barren and doomed Acres of vineyards for miles around
Now acres of memories burned to the ground

Chorus

*Too many tears to heal all the pain
If only if only these tears would fall like rain
If only the wind had been quiet that day
No angels no angels would take them all away*

Huddled forever in the dark of a room
Hearing the sound of the devil's monsoon
Destroying all things that lie in its way
So many good people were taken that day

Frightened no longer away from all harm
All now embraced in gods open arms
So many were lost and taken away
Never forgotten, in our hearts they'll stay

Chorus

Bridge

Why does the wind blow
Why does the sky glow
I don't know I don't know
I don't know I don't know
Why does my heart ache
Why do I hate to wake
I don't know I don't know
I don't know I don't know

Middle eight

Landscapes so vibrant now turned into dust
Consumed in the nightmare of flames so unjust
And through this wasteland we will find a way
To rebuild our lives from this terrible day

And out of the darkness comes a flicker of light
For the human spirit is still shining bright
With hearts united rebuilding the old
The future will rise from the ashes now cold

Chorus

Towards The Western Sun

David Llewellyn

I'm staring out into the western sky
I'm shielding my eyes from the haze
I've been caught up with the struggles of the day
But I'm back on my beach again
And we're throwing our clothes on the sand
As we run hand in hand into the setting sun

We're looking back for the final time
We're turning our backs on those lives
And with a glance, we say our goodbyes
We're skimming stones on a lake somewhere
We're climbing trees like we don't care
And we laugh, and we smile, as we play

Chorus

*Hold me closer girl
Pay no attention to this world
Turn your heart towards today
Live the moment like you've never done before Ooo oo oo
Love me sweeter than you have, the words to say*

We're parked off the road not saying a word
As we listen to the rain on the roof
You know it plays, a happy tune

We went skinny dipping in a stream
We made love in the back of the car
And we laughed and we smiled as we play

Chorus

Traces

David Llewellyn

Put your head on my shoulder Cry if you need to cry if you want to
I know it's hurt a thousand times before
There are traces of you in my dreams
Traces of faces, traces of places we've been
And you know there's traces of you girl
Traces of you in my dreams

Talk all day if you want to I'm listening to you I know what you're saying I've felt the same a million times or more
Are there traces of me in your dreams
Traces of faces traces of places we've seen
Did you know that those traces of you girl
Are the traces I've saved just for you

Chorus

*They're my traces of loves long ago they're my memories of you
They tantalise my dreams of you you know that they do
And if I could trace my footprints back I'd still be with you
I shouldn't really say these things but you know that they're true*

Is it all in your diary
Do you still like to read it Does it still make you blush a bit
I know these memories make me smile sometimes
There are traces of you in my dreams
Traces of faces traces of places we've been
And did you know that there's traces of you girl
Traces of you in my dreams

Chorus

Middle 8

And if I could trace my footprints back I'd still be with you
I shouldn't really say these things but you know that they're true

Until I Saw You

Ian MacCarthy

Every day and every night
I was alone so alone
Until I saw you
Until I saw you
I was alone so alone

Now all the time I'm with you
I feel so good I don't feel blue
Since I've met you
Since I've met you
I feel so good I feel so good

Chorus

*Standing in the rain
Walking through the park
You took away my pain
You stole away my heart*

Every day and every night
I hold you close you hold me tight
Since I've held you
Since I've held you
I feel alive so alive

Every day and every night
When we're alone I hear you say
Since I saw you
Since I saw you
I'm so in love so in love

Chorus

UNTIL I SAW YOU

When I Was Young

David Llewellyn

When I was young oh so much younger
Life gave me all that I needed
I couldn't wait so I didn't wait for your love
No no no, no no
But then I grew older oh so much older
And love was the thing that I needed from you
I wouldn't wait cause I couldn't wait for your love
No no no, no no

Chorus

*And there's nothing more to say 'cept you've been on my mind
Time wanders by, nothing can change my mind oh oh oh
Whenever love comes whenever love comes whenever love comes
She runs away and hides
Whenever love comes whenever love comes whenever love comes
She runs away and hides*

Bridge

Whenever love comes whenever love comes whenever love comes
She runs away she runs away and hides

When I was young oh so much younger
Life gave me all that I needed
I couldn't wait so I didn't wait for your love
No no no, no no
But then I grew older oh so much older
And love was the thing that I needed from you
